

DATA FOR PROGRESS

From February 27 to March 3, 2026, Data for Progress conducted a survey of 1,134 U.S. likely voters nationally using web panel respondents. The sample was weighted to be representative of likely voters by age, gender, education, race, geography, and recalled presidential vote. The survey was conducted in English. The margin of error associated with the sample size is ± 3 percentage points. Results for subgroups of the sample are subject to increased margins of error. Partisanship reflected in tabulations is based on self-identified party affiliation, not partisan registration. For more information please visit dataforprogress.org/our-methodology.

NB: subgroups with a n-size less than 50 (<50) are not shown on these cross-tabs. We choose not to display N<50 subgroups because the sample is too small to have statistical significance. We did, however, take samples of these subgroups for representational and weighting purposes to accurately reflect the electorate makeup. Some values may not add up to 100 due to rounding.

N=1,134 unless otherwise specified.

[1] When thinking about the Epstein files, which of the following statements comes closer to your view, even if neither is exactly right?

The Justice Department and FBI should be doing more to hold people who were named in the Epstein files accountable, including making arrests.	72	87	73	57	74	70	74	71	71	75	81	70	78
The federal government has done enough at this point regarding releasing the Epstein files, and should move on to more important policy issues.	23	11	22	37	21	26	21	24	25	21	17	25	21

[2] As you may know, former Prince Andrew of the British royal family was recently arrested and held for hours on suspicion of misconduct over ties to Jeffrey Epstein.

Regardless of what you think should happen, do you think any Americans will be arrested for their ties to Epstein?
