

DATA FOR PROGRESS

From October 15 to 17, 2021, Data for Progress conducted a survey of 1,157 likely voters nationally using web panel respondents. The sample was weighted to be representative of likely voters by age, gender, education, race, and voting history. The survey was conducted in English. The margin of error is ±3 percentage points.

N=1,157 unless otherwise specified. Some values may not add up to 100 due to rounding.

[1] Lawmakers in Congress are proposing new regulations on Wall Street. This proposal would require private equity firms to share responsibility for the debt and legal obligations of companies they own, prioritize workers' job security if a company fails, and provide investors with transparency about their investments. It would also raise revenue by increasing the tax rate private equity managers pay on investment income. Do you support or oppose this proposal?	Strongly support	21%	36%	19%	7
