

From February 5 to February 7, 2021, Data for Progress conducted a survey of 1213 likely voters nationally using web panel respondents. The sample was weighted to be representative of likely voters by age, gender, education, race, and voting history. The survey was conducted in English. The margin of error is ±2.8 percentage points.

NB: subgroups with a n-size less than 50 (<50) are not shown on these cross-tabs. We choose not to display N<50 subgroups because the sample is too small to have statistical significance. We did, however, take samples of these subgroups for representational and weighting purposes to accurately reflect the electorate makeup. Some values may not add up to 100 due to rounding.

[8] Some lawmakers in Congress are calling for the creation of a national commission to investigate the failure of Capitol police to prevent the attack on the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021 and to find any ties between police and the riot leaders that might exist. The commission would also propose reforms to the recruitment and practices of the Capitol police.

Do you support or oppose the creation of this commission?

[9] In a bipartisan vote, Democrats and Republicans in the House impeached former President Donald Trump. They accused him of trying to overturn the results of the 2020 presidential election and for inciting a riot that led to the storming of the U.S. Capitol building by his supporters.

Former President Trump will now be tried in the United States Senate. Do you support or oppose the Senate finding him guilty?

The only way we can come together as a country is by first having accountability. We need a trial to make sure something like what happened on January 6, 2021 never takes place again.	39	69	36	10	40	38	38	39	37	42	62	45	34	51	39	27
This trial is unconstitutional and is an unnecessary assault on someone who is now a private citizen who, while in office, was just exercising their right to free speech.	39	8	36	71	38	40	31	43	41	36	13	41	43	24	44	47
I think what Trump did was impeachable, but would prefer the Senate use this time to advance legislation, rather than holding a trial, especially because conviction seems unlikely without more Republican support.	15	16	17	12	15	15	16	15	12	19	14	6	16	16	13	17
