

DATA FOR PROGRESS

From December 16 to 19, 2022, Data for Progress conducted a survey of 1,184 likely voters nationally using web panel respondents. The sample was weighted to be representative of likely voters by age, gender, education, race, geography, and voting history. The survey was conducted in English. The margin of error is ± 3 percentage points.

NB: subgroups with a n-size less than 50 (<50) are not shown on these cross-tabs. We choose not to display N<50 subgroups because the sample is too small to have statistical significance. We did, however, take samples of these subgroups for representational and weighting purposes to accurately reflect the electorate makeup. Some values may not add up to 100 due to rounding.

N=1,184 unless otherwise specified.

[1] Social Security is run by the federal government, which provides guaranteed benefits.

Some legislators in Congress want to privatize Social Security, meaning people would be required to move their Social Security funds out of the guaranteed government fund and into the stock market and private bonds.
