

DATA FOR PROGRESS

From July 1 to 5, 2022, Data for Progress conducted a survey of 1,295 likely voters nationally using web panel respondents. The sample was weighted to be representative of likely voters by age, gender, education, race, and voting history. The survey was conducted in English. The margin of error is  $\pm 3$  percentage points.

NB: subgroups with a n-size less than 50 (<50) are not shown on these cross-tabs. We choose not to display N<50 subgroups because the sample is too small to have statistical significance. We did, however, take samples of these subgroups for representational and weighting purposes to accurately reflect the electorate makeup. Some values may not add up to 100 due to rounding.

N=1,295 unless otherwise specified.

[1] As you may have heard, the Supreme Court recently announced its decision on Dobbs v. Jackson. This decision effectively overturned the protected right to an abortion under the Constitution which was established by the 1973 Supreme Court case Roe v. Wade.

Given the Court's decision on this case, how concerned or not concerned are you about each of the following happening in the future:

— Same-sex marriage becoming illegal

[6] The state of Missouri has now enacted a law that prevents abortions unless it is a medical emergency. There are no exceptions for victims of crimes such as rape or incest.

Now, some health centers in Missouri have indicated they will no longer provide emergency contraception, also known as Plan B, to victims of rape or incest out of fear that doctors could be sued by the state for providing this care.

Which statement comes closer to your view, even if neither is exactly right?
