

From August 26 to 28, 2022, Data for Progress conducted a survey of 1,222 likely voters nationally using web panel respondents. The sample was weighted to be representative of likely voters by age, gender, education, race, and voting history. The survey was conducted in English. The margin of error is ± 3 percentage points.

N=1,222 unless otherwise specified. Some values may not add up to 100 due to rounding.

[1] Below is a set of proposed actions for the Senate Judiciary Committee to take. Please select the actions you think are the highest and lowest priorities for the Senate Judiciary Committee to take from each list. You may see the same proposed actions several times. Don't worry about remembering how you responded earlier, just pick which actions you think are the highest and lowest priorities when you see them.

— Looking into deleted or missing evidence from the phones of Department of Defense officials on January 6, 2021.

	D	I	R
Average	21	38	17 7

[2] Below is a set of proposed actions for the Senate Judiciary Committee to take. Please select the actions you think are the highest and lowest priorities for the Senate Judiciary Committee to take from each list. You may see the same proposed actions several times. Don't worry about remembering how you responded earlier, just pick which actions you think are the highest and lowest priorities when you see them.

— Holding confirmation hearings to fill federal judiciary vacancies with pro-choice judges to protect abortion rights across the country.

	D	I	R
Average	18	45	10 -4

[3] Below is a set of proposed actions for the Senate Judiciary Committee to take. Please select the actions you think are the highest and lowest priorities for the Senate Judiciary Committee to take from each list. You may see the same proposed actions several times. Don't worry about remembering how you responded earlier, just pick which actions you think are the highest and lowest priorities when you see them.

— Holding additional hearings to identify and address threats faced by election workers.

	D	I	R
Average	7	10	6 5

[4] Below is a set of proposed actions for the Senate Judiciary Committee to take. Please select the actions you think are the highest and lowest priorities for the Senate Judiciary Committee to take from each list. You may see the same proposed actions several times. Don't worry about remembering how you responded earlier, just pick which actions you think are the highest and lowest priorities when you see them.

— Examining data privacy and security risks to consumers on social media platforms like Twitter.

D I R
Average -2 | -14 1 8

[5] Below is a set of proposed actions for the Senate Judiciary Committee to take. Please select the actions you think are the highest and lowest priorities for the Senate Judiciary Committee to take from each list. You may see the same proposed actions several times. Don't worry about remembering how you responded earlier, just pick which actions you think are the highest and lowest priorities when you see them.

— Examining excessive card fees and ensuring major credit card companies allow more market competition.

D I R
Average -5 | -16 -1 3

[6] Below is a set of proposed actions for the Senate Judiciary Committee to take. Please select the actions you think are the highest and lowest priorities for the Senate Judiciary Committee to take from each list. You may see the same proposed actions several times. Don't worry about remembering how you responded earlier, just pick which actions you think are the highest and lowest priorities when you see them.

— Holding hearings to examine antitrust exemptions for Major League Baseball.

D I R
Average -77 | -88 -73 -68