

DATA FOR PROGRESS

From July 19 to 20, 2023, Data for Progress conducted a survey of 1,254 likely voters nationally using web panel respondents. The sample was weighted to be representative of likely voters by age, gender, education, race, geography, and voting history. The survey was conducted in English. The margin of error is ± 3 percentage points.

N=1,254 unless otherwise specified. Some values may not add up to 100 due to rounding.

[9] Recently, Senator Tommy Tuberville, a Republican from Alabama, has blocked the promotion of more than 250 senior military officers. This blockage is in protest of a Department of Defense policy that provides paid time off and pays for the travel expenses of service members and their dependent family members who seek abortions.

Which statement comes closer to your view, even if neither is exactly right?

		D	I	R
Senator Tuberville should not block the promotions of U.S. service members. A single senator should not take military personnel decisions hostage due to his opposition to the Department of Defense's own policies.	55%	75%	58%	29%
Senator Tuberville should continue this protest. The Biden Administration has gone too far in its efforts to impose abortion policies across all branches of our government, including the U.S. military.	33	16	27	57
