DATA FOR PROGRESS

From October 8 to 16, 2026, Data for Progress conducted a survey of 694 likely voters in Alaska using SMS and web panel respondents. The sample was weighted to be representative of likely voters by age, gender, education, race, geography, and recalled vote. The survey was conducted in English. The margin of error associated with the sample size is ±4 percentage points. Results for subgroups of the sample are subject to increased margins of error. Partisanship reflected in tabulations is based on self-identified party affiliation, not partisan registration. For more information please visit dataforprogress.org/our-methodology.

NB: subgroups with a n-size less than 40 (<40) are not shown on these cross-tabs. We choose not to display N<40 subgroups because the sample is too small to have statistical significance. We did, however, take samples of these subgroups for representational and weighting purposes to accurately reflect the electorate makeup. Some values may not add up to 100 due to rounding.

N=694 unless otherwise specified.

[20] The November 2026 general election for U.S. Representative from Alaska will be conducted using ranked-choice voting. This means that voters will be asked to rank up to 4 candidates, with candidates marked 1 being their first choice and candidates marked 4 being their last choice.

If these were the candidates for U.S. Representative, please rank up to four candidates you would vote for using the numbers 1 through 4, with 1 being your first choice and 4 being your last choice. You must rank at least one option. If you are not sure, please rank that as your first option.

[25] On November 3rd, 2026, voters in Alaska will decide whether to enact Ballot Measure No. 2, a proposed initiative. If passed, the initiative would go into effect 90 days after certification.

Below is the text of the initiative that will appear on the ballot:

An Act Restoring Political Party Primaries, Ending Ranked-Choice General Elections, and Repealing Recent Campaign Finance Laws

"This act would get rid of open primary elections, where all candidates appear on one ballot. It would also get rid of ranked-choice general elections. It would bring back political party primaries and single-choice general elections. It would also repeal certain campaign finance rules that were added by a 2020 ballot measure.

Elections would occur as they did before open primaries and ranked choice voting. In the primary election, voters would choose a party's ballot, unless prohibited by the party's bylaws. They would only vote for candidates on that ballot. The winning candidate from each primary would be the party's nominee. In the general election, voters would vote for only one candidate in each race. The candidate with the most votes would win. Party petitions, special runoff elections, and other processes would return. Candidates for governor and lieutenant governor would run separately in political party primaries and then together in the general election.

This act would also repeal campaign finance rules that were passed in 2020. It would remove the limits on donations to joint campaigns for governor and lieutenant governor. It would remove limits and disclosure rules under current law, including for digital ads, out-of-state donations, undisclosed donations, and the true source of donations. It would change the meaning of a campaign expenditure and remove some fines."

If the election were held today, would you vote Yes or No on this initiative?
